

Hello Heartache

*I remember your eyes and how they'd lock with mine
I remember lyin' in bed and losin' track of time.
Oh, and your smile would bring the butterflies.
I fell so hard that I never realized...*

*(Chorus) It was hello heartache, goodbye love,
I guess that my best just wasn't enough.
In the depth of my soul I'm left with a hole
That I can't fill so I cover it up.
Hello heartache, goodbye love...*

*I remember the fall. It happened so fast.
Were you afraid of starting something that just might last?
One day you pushed away... the next you were gone.
I was left with a letter and wonderin' what went wrong.*

(Chorus 2x)
