

Wake Up

It's hard to believe in everything I've been seein',
Tell me, where did we go wrong?
I don't know if we get it, but it feels like we're headin'
For somewhere we don't belong.
The temperature's risin' and it shouldn't be surprisin'
When we're getting' bigger every day.
Drillin' and burnin', maybe we should be learnin'
How to live our lives a better way.
Baby that 's why I say...

(Chorus) When we gonna wake up
And give our little world a big shake up?
I'm thinkin' that we need a revolution in our time,
An evolution of the mind.
When we gonna break up with all the bad habits that take up
Our energy and steal away our light?
How about tonight, we wake up?

Power and money can turn people funny,
Make you forget everything you know.
Spendin' all your time on the bottom line,
Tryin' to find a way to fill your soul.
The dollar don't do it, so then you get through it
And you come out on the other side,
Where you find out that it's all about
Helpin' out another and you realize...
Maybe we've been livin' lies...

(Chorus)

(Bridge) In the end, there's only love and memories
And the legacy we leave to carry on.
While we're here livin' out another year
We could make some good appear before we're gone.
What are we gonna do before we're gone?

(Chorus)

Lyrics and music: Jon Durnell

Vocals and guitar: Jon Durnell

Bass: Missy Burgess

Saxophone: Logan Weber

Backing vocals: Missy Burgess

Organ: Dan Middleton

Drums: Brad Crossland

